Report

The World AIDS Day program for the year 2025 was observed at Tagore College of Pharmacy by the Department of Pharmacy Practice, with enthusiastic participation by I Pharm D, I B. Pharm, and I year M. Pharm students. Dr. R. Seetharaman, Principal, welcomed the gathering and gave a meaningful overview of the importance of the day, focusing on global HIV/AIDS awareness, advancements in treatment, and the growing responsibility of pharmacists in patient counselling and adherence support. The theme address was delivered by Dr. N. Vanitha Rani, Professor and Head, Department of Pharmacy Practice, who elaborated on the World AIDS Day 2025 theme, emphasizing the need to eliminate stigma, strengthen community awareness, and support people living with HIV. Dr. Padmavathy, Professor and Head, Department of Pharmaceutics and Dr. Karuna Priyachithra, Professor and Head, Department of Pharmacology, delivered a special address on prevention, early diagnosis, empathy, and the role of pharmacists in public health initiatives. Dr. Sabishruthi, Assistant Professor, Department of Pharmacy Practice hosted the program. Following this, a Human Chain event was organized, where 88 students and 12 faculties actively participated by forming a chain and holding placards displaying strong messages on HIV prevention, awareness, and compassion, symbolizing unity in the fight against AIDS. The event drew attention within the campus and reinforced the importance of collective responsibility in spreading accurate knowledge about HIV/AIDS. Dr. V. Evangeline Brighta, Assistant Professor, Department of Pharmacy Practice, rendered the vote of thanks.
